DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, lines 5-8 are confusing.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 4, 7, 8, 10, 13, 14, 16, 19, 20 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dahl.

Regarding claims 1, 7, 13 and 19, Dahl teaches in the figures a figure having an arm attachment portion (fig. 1, the person shown), at least two figure transport unit and a base (see marked copy fig. 1) and a body and arm movable between a first position and a second position (20,30; see marked copy fig. 1).

Regarding claims 2, 8, 14 and 20, Dahl further teaches the units move between the first position and second position in an arcuate path (fig.1).

Art Unit: 3712

Regarding claims 4, 10, 16, 22, Dahl further teaches an additional component (31, 33).

Claims 1-3, 7-10, 13-16 and 19-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kucher.

Regarding claims 1, 7, 13 and 19, Dahl teaches in the figures a figure having an arm attachment portion (41,42), at least two figure transport unit and a base (13 and 12) and a body and arm movable between a first position and a second position (fig. 1).

Regarding claims 2, 8, 14 and 20, Dahl further teaches the units move between the first position and second position in an arcuate path (fig.1).

Regarding claims 3, 9, 15 and 21 Dahl further teaches a spring bias (37).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5, 6, 11, 12, 17, 18, 23 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kucher in view of Young.

Kucher teaches in the figures most of the elements of the claimed invention, except for the arm attachment portion of the figure and the figure attachment portion of the units are magnet. Young teaches in the figures a magnetic toy trapeze having a trapeze artist (79) and a trapeze rungs (col. 3, par. 2) formed of a magnetic material. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the arm attachment portion of the figure and figure attachment portion of the unit of Kucher magnet as taught by Young for the purpose of providing a more secure fit when attaching the arm portion to the unit.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Davis, Clark, Beach, Rosenberger, Reach.
